

My son has always been a huge soccer fan. Cuando sale con sus amigos lo único que quiere hacer es jugar y jugar. Además coaches have told him that he is really good! Last month tuvo su último partido del campeonato taking on his rival school for the last time this season. Unfortunately, the end of the game was not what we wanted to see because perdieron 4 a 3 y regresaron a casa sin la copa. Ahora el entrenador necesita pin down the improvements necessary for next season!
